

3. The Tips for Self-Destruction

11/3/2002

One of the old TV series that turned into a major motion picture was "Mission Impossible." With a distinctive theme music in the background, the leading character Jim opened up a package with a tape recorder inside. The tape recorder starts to explain his next mission. When it is done, the voice says, "This message will be self-destroyed in five seconds." Self-destruction, it is not a kind of words you'd like to happen to any one of us. However, as Christians, we always have potential to self-destroy ourselves to ground.

We find Eli's sons and Eli do exactly the same things I am talking about.

A. WHAT NO PUNISHMENT?

1 Sam 2:22 Now Eli was very old; and he heard everything his sons did to all Israel, and how they lay with the women who assembled at the door of the tabernacle of meeting.

Eli heard everything, yet didn't do anything. That sin is worse than not knowing.

Prov 13:24 He who spares his rod hates his son, But he who loves him disciplines him promptly.

A chinese proverb says, "By the end of the day, whip the child. You may not know why, but the child knows why." I am not saying that parents should punish a child without any guidance. I am absolutely against physical abuse against children.

If we want our children to like us and that is our primary goal to raise our children, we won't like what our children become. I've known way too many parents or grandparents let their children to do whatever they want and end up having little monsters who could care less about anyone else except themselves like these two sons of Eli. Firm discipline toward your own child with love is very much biblical and important for that child's future and the people around him or her.

It is an ancient version of modern "preacher sex scandal." It is possible that the women who assembled at the door of the tabernacle were in some way workers at the house of the Lord. Exodus 38:8 refers to the serving women who assembled at the door of the tabernacle of meeting.

1 Sam 2:23-25 So he said to them, "Why do you do such things? For I hear of your evil dealings from all the people. No, my sons! For it is not a good report that I hear. You make the Lord's people transgress. If one man sins against another, God will judge him. But if a man sins against the Lord, who will intercede for him?" Nevertheless they did not heed the voice of their father, because the Lord desired to kill them.

Eli did one of those stupid mistakes we, parents, often make - whining and lecturing and no consequence for our children's behaviors.

Eli's boys did not heed the voice of their father. Somehow, like them, we tend to think that we can get by with our sins and God is going to wink at us.

1 Cor 10:12 Therefore let him who thinks he stands take heed lest he fall.

1 Sam 2:26 And the child Samuel grew in stature, and in favor both with the Lord and men.

Samuel grew in stature, and in favor both with the Lord and men – like Jesus in Luke 2:52

B. THE FIRST WARNING FROM THE LORD TO THE HOUSE OF ELI

1 Sam 2:27 Then a man of God came to Eli and said to him, "Thus says the Lord: 'Did I not clearly reveal Myself to the house of your father when they were in Egypt in Pharaoh's house?"

Then a man of God: We don't know who this was; this man of God is one of the wonderful anonymous characters of the Bible.

The father referred to is Aaron, who was the first high priest. Eli was a descendant of Aaron, whom God had revealed Himself to.

1 Sam 2:28 Did I not choose him out of all the tribes of Israel to be My priest, to offer upon My altar, to burn incense, and to wear an ephod before Me? And did I not give to the house of your father all the offerings of the children of Israel made by fire?"

1 Samuel 2:28 is a wonderful summary of some of the duties of the priesthood in Israel.

1) To be My priest:

First and foremost, the job of the High Priest was to minister unto the Lord. Before he served the people, he was a servant of God.

2) To offer upon My altar:

The priest was to bring forth sacrifices for atonement and worship. The altar was the place where atoning blood was both shed and applied, blood that would cleanse from sin.

3) To burn incense:

The burning of incense was always a picture of prayer, because the smoke and the scent of the incense would ascend up to the heavens. The priest was to lead the nation in prayer, and to pray for the nation.

4) To wear an ephod before Me:

The priest was clothed in specific garments, for glory and for beauty (Exodus 28:2). He was to represent the majesty, dignity, glory, and beauty of God to the people.

1 Sam 2:29 Why do you kick at My sacrifice and My offering which I have commanded in My dwelling place, and honor your sons more than Me, to make yourselves fat with the best of all the offerings of Israel My people?"

Jesus tells us in Matt. 10:37, "Anyone who loves his father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me; anyone who loves his son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of me."

As a matter of fact, it sounds like Jesus was contradicting against His own word. Because He teaches us to love our neighbor as ourselves, or respect our parents. It means that we are supposed to love our God so much that our love for our own family members is like hatred toward them. Eli tried to be in favor of his sons and wanted to be popular with them that he ignored the love for God.

I had some conversations with my coworkers at the office regarding Halloween – Trick or treat. I gave them the flyers I gave you guys. They were telling me that they concerned that their children might miss a lot of fun doing tricks and treats from their neighbors. Whom are they trying to please? Their children or their God?

1 Sam 2:30 Therefore the Lord God of Israel says: 'I said indeed that your house and the house of your father would walk before Me forever.' But now the Lord says: 'Far be it from Me; for those who honor Me I will honor, and those who despise Me shall be lightly esteemed.

Eric Liddell was one of Britain's great athletes, and later he gave his life for Jesus on the mission field. In 1924 he was to run for Britain in the Olympic Games, when it was discovered that the preliminary heats of his best event, the 100 meters, would be run on a Sunday. Quietly but firmly, Liddell refused to run. The day of 400 meters race came, and as Liddell went to the starting blocks, an unknown man slipped a piece of paper in his hand with a quotation from 1 Samuel 2:30: "Those who honor Me I will honor." That day Eric Liddell set a world's record in the 400 meters.

1 Sam 2:31 Behold, the days are coming that I will cut off your arm and the arm of your father's house, so that there will not be an old man in your house. Not literally God is going to cut the arms of Eli, this was saying that the house of Eli would be left powerless and without strength.

1 Sam 2:32-33 And you will see an enemy in My dwelling place, despite all the good which God does for Israel. And there shall not be an old man in your house forever. But any of your men whom I do not cut off from My altar shall consume your eyes and grieve your heart. And all the descendants of your house shall die in the flower of their age.

God was dealing with Eli for his neglect to his sons. If his sons were soldiers, or farmers, it wouldn't be such a big issue. But they were priests of God, they should have known better. A man can be a medical doctor and sleeps around with anyone walking around. But he doesn't have to lose his job as a doctor. A woman who has a loose life in military may not get a respect from her peers, but she can still hold her rank. But a man of God, especially pastors or priests do that kind of things, he is out the door. Even though the world embrace their own immoral lives, but they put high standards against Christians.

We have tendency to reject God's whisper to our hearts. We'd rather listen to our own justification with lousy excuse to sin against God. We know when God speaks to us if we have been in the Lord long enough. He starts with a little whisper in our hearts. If we continuously ignore Him, He will do whatever He had to do to get our attention. The Bible says that it is better come and fall upon the Rock that is Jesus than the Rock falls upon us and crushes us.

1 Sam 2:34 Now this shall be a sign to you that will come upon your two sons, on Hophni and Phinehas: in one day they shall die, both of them.

God gives us warnings against our sins.

They have double purposes:

1) To warn us what would happen if we don't repent

2) Make us to think about the situation and to turn away from sins and repent. Then God will forgive us from our sins.

It brings us to the point where we have to decide which direction we should go: to repent from our sins and turn to God and receive His forgiveness or face the consequences of our action.

1 Sam 2:35 Then I will raise up for Myself a faithful priest who shall do according to what is in My heart and in My mind. I will build him a sure house, and he shall walk before My anointed forever.

Who is the faithful priest predicted here? He was a great priest, because he did according to what is in God's heart and in God's mind. He was a blessed priest, because God said.

- 1) This promise was partially fulfilled in Samuel, because he functioned as a godly priest, effectively replacing the ungodly sons of Eli.
- 2) The promise was partially fulfilled in Zadok, in the days of Solomon, because he replaced Eli's family line in the priesthood.
- 3) The promise was ultimately fulfilled in Jesus Christ, because He is a priest forever according to the order of Melchizedek (Hebrews 7:12-17).

1 Sam 2:36 And it shall come to pass that everyone who is left in your house will come and bow down to him for a piece of silver and a morsel of bread, and say, "Please, put me in one of the priestly positions, that I may eat a piece of bread."

Isn't that an awful picture to face. Once they were the priests of God Almighty, but now they are going to be a beggar.

C. APPLICATIONS

There are four "S"s that are used by satan to destroy men and women of God. Here is the list of the tips for self-destruction:

1) Self – v25 God hates our pride. Man's pride is the one that causes the man to fall from paradise.

It is on the top of the list of God despises in Prov. 6:17

2) Silver – v15 Some ministers have wealth of thought, but some ministers like these two guys only have thoughts of wealth.

1Tim. 6:6 But godliness with contentment is great gain.

1Tim. 6:10 For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evil. Some people, eager for money, have wandered from the faith and pierced themselves with many griefs.

1Tim. 6:3-5 If anyone teaches false doctrines and does not agree to the sound instruction of our Lord Jesus Christ and to godly teaching, he is conceited and understands nothing. He has an unhealthy interest in controversies and quarrels about words that result in envy, strife, malicious talk, evil suspicions and constant friction between men of corrupt mind, who have been robbed of the truth and who think that godliness is a means to financial gain.

3) Sex – v22 So many men and women of God think too lightly about handling situations with opposite sex. It always starts with innocent contacts. To prevent any possibilities of off-track cases, here in Calvary Chapel of Sahuarita, your pastor or counselors are not going to have any counseling to opposite sex without someone of the same sex as you.

4) Sloth –v29 Eli ignored the God's warning that was delivered by a prophet of God.

A place of deep mud or mire, state of moral degradation or spiritual dejection. Unfortunately, Eli was not warned by God just once, but twice. When God repeats His warnings twice, we'd better take heed. It can be rather hazardous for our health.

Here are a couple of sure ways to cure these self-destruction.

2Cor. 10:5 We demolish arguments and every pretension that sets itself up against the knowledge of God, and we take captive every thought to make it obedient to Christ.

2Cor. 7:1 Since we have these promises, dear friends, let us purify ourselves from everything that contaminates body and spirit, perfecting holiness out of reverence for God.
